"Global Law Thinkers Society"- What is the purpose of naming?

The Global Law Thinkers Society has been named to make every person in the society aware of and to establish rights by enforcing the law. Through legal awareness every person in the world will come forward consciously for himself, family, society and country.

The "Global Law Thinkers Society" seeks to establish an international family, where everyone is helpful and work for growth, bring positive change in society and thought process in positive way, and work together to protect the rights of all species. From that thought, it is felt that there is no alternative to law to bring the changes. No rights can be established without law. If you know the law, it is possible to apply the law. The law is for betterment of the people. To establish rights through law, this organization has been named "Law Thinkers". "Global Law Thinkers Society" is designed to increase the scope of thinking of people of all ages internationally, to take appropriate actions, and build peaceful world.

How was GLTS established?

Founders Raoman Smita and Ahsanul Alam John started working together to bring positive mindset in young people so they all together can work to build a green and peaceful world. They started activities for children and young people from September 2010. Inspired by their activities, Khaled Masud Majumder, Jasmine Akter, Ekramul Islam, Sufi Al Mamun, Tousif Gaddafi Don, Shuvechchha Ahmed Kawtha, and Shirin Sultana joined their hands. They started impact in young and adults. Later in 2016, GLTS completed the registration process and took it to international level. It operates simultaneously with various international organizations in different countries of the world. In 2019, they organized 2nd South-Asian Youth Conference where 29 countries participated. Since then they never stopped and in 2020 they made it to "World Book of Records" by hosting the largest-longest online conference of young leaders from 100 countries.

2. What are the moto of GLTS?

We want to build a Global Family, one multi-professional networking platform, establish peace and build green world.

3. How did GLTS Form?

GLTS activities for children and young people started in September 2010. To make their mental structure positive and to make the world better place together. Founder Raoman Smita and his colleague Ahsanul Alam started working together to build a green and peaceful world. Other team members Khaled Masud Mojumder, Jasmine Akter, Akramul Islam, Sufi Al Mamun, Toussif Gaddafi Don, Shuvechcha Ahmed Kawtha, Shirin Sultana and many more also joined them to support this good cause and movement.

4. Why the name of the organization is Global Law Thinkers?

The Global Thinkers Society seeks to establish an international family, where everyone will be compassionate to each other and contribute for each others improvement, bring positive change in society-human thinking, and work together to protect the rights of all living things. And from that thought it is felt that there is no alternative to law to achieve the goal.

No rights can be established without law. If you know the law, it is possible to apply the law. And this must be the law for the betterment of the people. That's why "law thinkers" was named to establish all kinds of rights through law. All ages and multi-professionals can expand, exchange their knowledge and thoughts and can work internationally as a global family that's why it is named "Global Law Thinkers Society."
